

Were all the policies that governments around the world are considering today be implemented :

CO₂ emissions will still be 25% above current levels in 2030

World Energy Outlook 2007
International Energy Agency

